Speaking Hope to the World

CAMENA

Dear Friends and Family

Greetings from Cyprus.

As you receive this note, I (Nate) will be away in Central Asia on a studio project. The studio is in a sensitive part of the world, dominated by a religion hostile to the Gospel. Working with our brothers and sisters in Christ there is a special privilege.

I will be in two different countries of Central Asia this time. The first stop is to consult on rebuilding a studio and the second completing a new studio. I will be installing new equipment and then training the staff. The final day will include an on location recording of a traditional music group and choir. Our team there will use the new equipment and skills to record content for their broadcasts, apps, and social media presentation. Pray for our success, as this is ministry to one of the least reached people groups.

In June I was at the same location for setting up some of the studio. While there I was also at our major transmitter site as we signed on the new Silk Road transmitter. This is also the site of our transmitter that reaches into Pakistan, Afghanistan, and North India. I felt privileged and humbled at the same time to be standing next to the super power transmitters as the word of God was going out to the people.

In the last week a team from Kansas and the Netherlands came to help us in our own office. They were able to build us storage closets and refurbish our studio acoustic treatment. This was work sorely needed that would have taken us over a year to get to.

Janette continues to teach English to refugee women from Syria. She will have a summer break teaching the Chinese group. Please remember to pray for Janette as she builds relationship with her students. Ask the Lord to show Himself to these women.

Central Asia co-workers as we prepare ventilation for new studios.
